The Former Miss Brenda June Carter

Coleman - Carter Wed In Military Ceremony

The marriage of Miss Brenda June Carter to Lieutenant Kenneth Howell Coleman, United States Army, took place Sunday the 16th of May, at 7:30 in the evening in Jackson Memorial Hall, Virginia Military Institute, Lexington.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Carter of Lexington.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Coleman of Appomattox.

Robert K. Wilson, Chaplain at Virginia Military Institute, officiated at the double ring, military ceremony.

Mr. Jackie Templeton of Lexington provided the organ music and vocalists were Mr. O. E. Parker, Jr., of Covington and Mrs. William McCall of Columbia, South Carolina.

The bride, escorted and given in marriage by her father, wore a full length bouffant organza gown, with long tapered lace sleeves, a high mandrin neckline and the double tiered skirt edged in pear'd-ange lace, over a full hoop skirt, with sequins and lace. She wore a picture hat of ruffled Val-Lace and large dior bow of maline with floor length veil of illusion. She carried a cascade bouquet of white orchids and white carnations.

Miss Diane Massie of Lexington, the maid of honor, wore a floor length dress fashioned of ice blue dotted swiss, the empire bodice finished with a scoop neckline and short puffed sleeves, edged with lace beading and matching satin ribbon, the lace and ribbon encircling the high waistline. She carried a crescent bouquet of blue, pink, green and yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Lila Cloar, Miss Christine Moorhead, Miss Deborah Harmison and Mrs. Johnnie Flint all of Lexington, Mrs. William McCall of Columbia, South Caroline and Miss Patricia Hudson, cousin of the groom, of Appomattox. They wore dresses fashioned like the honor attendant's dress in rainbow colors of pink, green and yellow. All attendants wore headpieces of organza bows matching their dresses and carried colonial bouquets.

Kenneth E. Coleman was his son's best man.

Groomsmen were Lieutenants Richard E. Randolph of Martinsville, Thomas W. Lawson of Appomattox, Gerald J. Acuff, Jr., of Memphis, Tennessee, Michael A. Strickland of Portsmouth, Mark A. Palmer of Martinsburg, West Virginia, Warren J. Bryan of Roanoke, Steven E. Ballowe and Robert S. Lockridge, Jr., both of Lynchburg.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in Moody Alumni Hall, Virginia Military Institute.

The bride is a graduate of Lexington High School and a graduate of the Stonewall Jackson School of Practical Nursing, Lexington.

The bridegroom is a graduate of Appomattox High School and was a May 16th graduate of Virginia Military Institute, Lexington, where he received a bachelor of science degree in Biology.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Coleman are on a northern wedding trip to the Poconos, Pennsylvania.

Receives 500 Hour Pin

Miss Annie Hancock has received a pin in recognition of 500 hours of volunteer service as a Pink Lady at the Virginia Baptist Hospital.

Miss Hancock does work at the Information Desk, works as a Television Lady – turning on sets for new patients and also turning them off when not wanted – does some work with the shopping cart service, and sometimes waters flowers for patients. There are several other services rendered by Pink Ladies at the Virginia Baptist Hospital and Miss Hancock has at one time or another helped out with them all.

Congratulations to "Miss Annie" for her volunteer service in this most important phase of helping humanity.
